

PROVIDE FIRST AID

HLTAID011

This course applies to all workers who may be required to provide a first aid response in a range of situations, including community and workplace setting. It is also suitable for people who need to conduct annual refresher training, maintain workplace skills or those who simply want to be equipped with a critical lifesaving skill.

Our first aid course will provide you with the knowledge and skills to manage emergency first aid situations, including respond to an emergency situation, apply appropriate first aid procedures, communicate details of the incident and review the incident. It is the standard course required for employment in many industries and job.
